Senate Resolution No. 8:

WHEREAS, the construction of that certain State road which connects with Federal Highway No. 241 between the Alabama and Florida line and Dothan, Alabama, and which runs south from said line through Graceville, Chipley, Southport, Lynnhaven and to Federal Highway No. 319 at Panama City, is of great economic and social importance to the territory it traverses, and

WHEREAS, the State of Florida has exhausted its funds available for the completion of said road, and

WHEREAS, it is apparent that the State of Florida will be unable to complete the road unless it can secure Federal funds for the purpose, and

WHEREAS, the designation of this road as a Federal Aid Highway would enable the State Road Department to secure Federal funds for its completion.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA, that the State Road Department, the Federal Bureau of Public Roads and any other State and Federal agencies which may be able to assist are hereby requested to take all possible steps to Federalize said road at the earliest possible moment so that Federal funds may be secured from the funds now available under the National Security Act; and be it further

RESOLVED that a copy of this Resolution shall be sent to the State Road Department, the Federal Bureau of Public Roads and such other State or Federal agencies as may have to pass upon the same.

Which was read the first time in full.

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has passed—

By Senator Shivers—

Senate Memorial No. 9:

WHEREAS, the construction of the canal between the Choctawhatchee Bay and West Bay, Florida and the improvement of the canal between the Apalachicola River and St. Andrews Bay, Florida, are the last remaining uncompleted projects in that part of the Gulf Coastal Canal System between the Apalachicola River and Corpus Christi, Texas, and

WHEREAS, full and complete approval of these two projects has been given by the Rivers and Harbors Committee of Congress and the United States Army Engineers as set forth in House Documents No. 259 and No. 52 of the Seventy-second Congress, and

WHEREAS, every Federal agency has proven the economic necessity and justification for the expenditure of the cost of these projects which has been estimated by the United States Army Engineers and

WHEREAS, the only present means by which Federal funds can be appropriated for the construction of these projects is from the proceeds of the recently enacted Federal Security Fund, and

WHEREAS, it will be incumbent upon our Senators and Congressmen in Washington to take active and immediate steps to secure the appropriation from the Public Works Administrator and such other agency as may be set up for distribution of the recently enacted Security Fund, and

WHEREAS, the Gulf Coastal Canal System on which the Federal Government has already expended some eighty million dollars cannot be completed or brought into full fruition until these two Florida projects are completed, and

WHEREAS, when the same are completed they will provide a means of continuous water transportation between the upper regions of the Apalachicola River and the St. Marks River on the east, the entire Gulf Coast to Corpus Christi, Texas, on the west and through the Mississippi River to Chicago and the Great Lakes, and

WHEREAS, this continuous water transportation facility is of tremendous economic importance particularly to the Gulf

Coast and interior sections of Florida, Georgia and Alabama, and

WHEREAS, the expenditure at this time of the funds in this area of Florida will be of great assistance in helping to relieve the unemployment burden of the area;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Legislature of the State of Florida hereby requests the Senators and Congressmen of Florida, Georgia and Alabama to use all possible means to secure the appropriation for the immediate construction of these projects, and be it further

RESOLVED, that a copy of this Resolution be sent to the President of the United States, to the Public Works Administrator in Washington and to any other Federal agency which the President may appoint for the purpose of allocating funds to such Federal projects and to our Senators and Congressmen in Washington and to the Senators and Congressmen of Georgia and Alabama and to the press of the several respective States.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA:

That the following amendment of Section 7 of Article X of the Constitution of the State of Florida relating to the exemption of homesteads from taxation, be, and the same is hereby, agreed to, and shall be submitted to the electors of the State at the General Election of Representatives in 1936, for approval or rejection; that is to say, that the said Section 7 of Article X of the Constitution be amended so as to read as follows:

Every person who has the legal or beneficial title in equity to real property in this State and who resides thereon and in good faith makes the same his or her permanent home, or the permanent home of another or others legally or naturally dependent upon said person, shall be entitled to an exemption from all taxation, except for assessments for special benefits, up to the assessed valuation of Five Thousand Dollars on the said home and contiguous real property. Said title may be held by the entireties, jointly, or in common with others, and said exemption may be apportioned among such of the owners as shall reside thereon, as their respective interests shall appear, but no such exemption of more than Five Thousand Dollars shall be allowed to any one person or on any one dwelling house, nor shall the amount of the exemption allowed any person exceed the proportionate assessed valuation based on the interest owned by such person. The Legislature shall prescribe appropriate and reasonable laws regulating the manner of establishing the right to said exemption. The Legislature may provide for a refund of all taxes paid since November 6, 1934, by persons who would have been entitled to exemption hereunder, if the section had then been in force, where claims therefor have been filed with the proper assessing or collecting officers.

Senate Memorial No. 8:

Memorial to the Congress of the United States of America.

A Memorial to the Congress of the United States of America Now Convened in Session as the Seventy-fourth Congress of the United States of America.

WHEREAS, the navigable water known and designated by the United States Government as the Ocklawaha River, with its outlet in the navigable water of the St. Johns River, is in fact navigable only to small craft, and

WHEREAS, the Federal Government has expended large sums of money on said Ocklawaha River in the construction of a lock and dam and lakes, which are utterly useless without other and further work and development of said river for the purpose of making it navigable, and

WHEREAS, the beauties of the Ocklawaha River and the inland waters of Florida connected with said Ocklawaha River are unexcelled in any part of the United States, and

WHEREAS, said Ocklawaha River and its tributaries lie within the most productive and highly developed agricultural sections of the State of Florida, and

WHEREAS, the expenditure of a comparatively small amount of money would make this wonderful land of lakes, rivers, tropical growth, sunshine and wealth accessible to pleasure and commercial water craft;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED BY THE FLORIDA LEGISLATURE, That the Senators and Representatives from the State of Florida in the Congress of the United States of America be and they are hereby respectfully requested and urged to make every effort to obtain the necessary appropriation of monies to be used for the purpose of making the said Ocklawaha River navigable from its outlet in the St. Johns River to its source in Lake Apopka, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this Memorial be immediately forwarded, under the great seal of the State of Florida, by the Secretary of the State of Florida, to the President of the United States Senate, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives and to each Senator and Congressman of the State of Florida.

Very respectfully,

WELDON G. STARRY,

Chief Clerk House of Representatives.

Senate Memorial No. 8, contained in the above message, was referred to the Committee on Enrolled Bills.

Also—

The following message from the House of Representatives was received and read:

Tallahassee, Florida, April 19, 1935.

Hon. Wm. C. Hodges,
President of the Senate.

Sir:

I am directed by the House of Representatives to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has adopted—

By Messrs. Cole and Merritt, of Escambia—

House Concurrent Resolution No. 7:

WHEREAS, the State of Florida and its citizens generally are ever solicitous of new industries and new residents, and,

WHEREAS, it is reliably reported that the motion picture industry is tentatively considering Florida as a possible location for its huge enterprise, and,

WHEREAS, the State of Florida is most gracious to industry and individuals in matters of taxation, having no State income tax, having exempted homesteads from taxation, and having by constitutional writ guaranteed the motion picture industry exemption from taxation for a period of fifteen (15) years, now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED: That the House of Representatives of the State Legislature, the Senate concurring, hereby calls the attention of the motion picture industry and of the world to the advantages hereinbefore listed, and to other advantages too numerous and too well known generally to need reciting, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That the motion picture industry especially is cordially invited to locate in Florida; and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That a duly certified copy of this resolution be dispatched to the head of each motion picture producing company in the industry by the Secretary of State.

And respectfully requests the concurrence of the Senate therein.

Very respectfully,

WELDON G. STARRY,

Chief Clerk House of Representatives.

And House Concurrent Resolution No. 7, contained in the above message, was read the first time in full and went over under the rules.
